

We want to help in every way possible to ensure you will have an awesome time on your journey. Below, you will find a checklist of items that we suggest you bring with you. This is not a complete list, but it is most of the basics you will need. We suggest you use the blank areas on to add additional items as you think of them.

- Drinking water for humans. Water for horses will be available, but you may have to tote your own.
- Food Bring your own lunch. Dinner will be provided Thursday, Friday, Saturday; breakfast provided Thursday, Friday, Saturday, continental breakfast on Sunday. (Dinner menu: Thursday – burgers and hot dogs, Friday – sausage & brisket, Saturday – chicken fajitas)
- Cooking utensils (if needed) •
- Battery powered lighting
- Sleeping needs for wherever you plan to sleep at night. ٠
- Fire starter
- Compass •
- Warm clothes and rain gear.
- Water buckets
- Feed
- Hay, or available nearby at:

ROSWELL, NM 905 White Mill Rd. (575) 622-3260

Roswell Livestock & Farm Supply 1105 E 2nd Street (575) 622-9164 www.RoswellLivestock.com

&

RUIDOSO DOWNS, NM Alderman-Cave Feeds Harvey's Feed & Supply 26525 US-70

(575) 378-8750

EVENT AREA VETERINARIAN:

Franklin Veterinary Clinic 100 Service Lane Ruidoso Downs, NM 88346 (575) 378-4708, FAX (575) 378-4116 www.FranklinVeterinaryClinic.net

> CAPITAN, NM Circle A Farms & Supply 125 NM-246 (575) 491-7518

- Banamine
- Fly spray
- Wound care needs for horses
- Horse blanket
- Horse containment (solar fence, panels, highline, hobbles, ropes, etc.) Corrals on the premises are first come, first serve.
- Saddle bags
- Personal first aid kit
- Current health certificate and Coggins papers for all horses (required by law, not by church). Health certificates • are good for only 30 days, so DO NOT GET THEM BEFORE September 1st. The destination address on the certificate should read: "Forest Service Road 107, Nogal, NM 88341"
- Horses should be shod due to the rocky terrain, we suggest 2 weeks prior for horse to adjust to shoes.
- Walkie talkies (optional)
- Hikers might want to bring a walking stick, and appropriate footwear.
- Come with your eyes and heart OPEN!